WE NOMINATE

Four far-visioned Princeton University undergraduates, ranging in years from 19 to 22—John Blair Butterworth, Donald Kenneth Emmerson, Howard Garrett Pontius and John Hubbel Weiss—who over the past eight months have played major roles in developing and dramatizing the exciting concept which has now been embodied in the Kennedy Administration's Peace Corps. Some ten weeks before President Kennedy broached the idea of "youth service abroad," in an address at the University of Michigan, this quartet was organizing here on the University Campus a Point Four Youth Conference concerned with reviewing "The Challenge to American Youth from the World's Emerging Nations."

The spark for this initial "Peace Corps Conference", to which 100 colleges and universities were invited to send delegates to Princeton over the Yale football weekend (November 11-12), was struck by the 20-year old Emmerson, son of a career Foreign Service officer, who is currently serving as this country's Consul General to the Rhodesias and Nyasaland. Emmerson, a senior in the Woodrow Wilson School and currently claiming Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia, as his home, was working last summer with the African-American Institute and became intrigued with the possibilities of capitalizing upon what he calls "the great untapped reservoir of energy and ability" represented by American youth.

Princeton, Emmerson recalls, "had the name and an ideal location" for such a gathering and a sponsor in the American-Whig Clio-Sophic Society, the nation's oldest student debating and political organization, of which Emmerson is retiring vice-president. He promptly enlisted the support of Pontius, Whig-Clio president, and Butterworth, head of the society in his sophomore year prior to drawing a year's suspension from the University. The three "senior statesmen" lost no time in projecting Emmerson's thoughts and, when the University opened in September, the stage was set. Upon the 19-year old Weiss, a sophomore and resident of Rome, N. Y., fell the "pick-and-shovel job" of running the conference.

Like Emmerson, the ebullient 22-year old Butterworth, who during his year's leave from the Campus operated a "tree surgery firm" in Colorado, is also a "Foreign Service junior"—the son of the American Ambassador to the European Economic Community. Both men share the conviction that "it would be a high honor to work shoulder to shoulder with Africans, Asians and South Americans in this great moment in history." And both have applied for positions with the Peace Corps as well as with a more advanced program, "Teachers for East Africa."

Where Emmerson was born in Tokyo and Butterworth in London, Pontius, a senior in the Woodrow Wilson School, is a native of Schenectady, N. Y., with equally deep interests in the newly developing countries. At the moment he is considering either the Foreign Service or an overseas assignment with a major American corporation, whichever in his opinion might constitute the better springboard for "politics". Late this month all four, with the seniors charging Weiss with "the heritage" of sustaining interest in the Peace Corps and allied undertakings, will be spokesmen at a Washington conference sponsored by the 400-college National Students Association and devoted to the Peace Corps.

For their efforts in helping create a pilot youth service program; for refuting the too-often heard lament about the "beat", or apathetic, generation; for their understanding of the problems and opportunities now confronting the Western World; these four men are Town Topics' nominees for

CANDIDATES CHOSEN
For Borough, Township. Only a few hours before last Thursday's deadline, Republicans and Democrats in Princeton, both parties, had gathered in their public offices and presented them to Borough and Township clerks for listing on the April 11 primary ballots.

In the Borough, Democratic Mayor Raymond F. Wilson will seek his third term of office in Borough Hall. To run in place of retiring Councilman Dan D. Coyle, the Democratic candidate was Alvin W. Wittemann, who announced he would not run again.

Mr. Wilson has lived in Princeton since 1949 and has served on the Board of Education and the Township Planning Board. He was present at the Board of Education meeting three of the six years that he served as member. Riverside and Johnson Park Schools were constructed during his presidency.

In a statement released this week, Borough Republicans announced that Mayor Henry S. Patterson, 46 Westcott Road, executive vice-president of the Elizabeth Water Company and the Somerville Water Company, would seek re-election with the class of 1944.

Mr. Patterson has served for three years on the Republican County Committee. He is secretary of the New Jersey Conference for the Promotion of Better Government (a Republican organization) and third vice-president of the Princeton Republican Club. He has made his home here since 1956.

His running-mates, who will oppose Mr. Van de Velde and Mr. Readling, are Alvin W. Carrick and Joseph R. Wood. Mr. Carrick, 260 Prospect Avenue, is a graduate of Princeton who has lived here since 1939. He was head of the Borough Planning Board.

Similalr action was taken by Princeton Township Committee at its February 6 meeting. Township officials had earlier voted to spend one-third of the amount realized just to collect the tax under the Board from 1947 to 1951 and was chairman of the Mayor's Advisory Committee on Roads.

Mr. Wood, who teaches mathematics at Princeton Country Day School. He is a member of the Legion Post 76 and vice-chairman of the Princeton Chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

In the Township, Only one Township Committee seat will be filled in this year's election. Incumbent, Democrat William W. McNeil, 101 Wittemann, announced he would not run again. He will be opposed by Republicans William L. Wilson, 223 Jefferson Road.

Mr. Wilson has lived in Princeton since 1949 and has served on the Board of Education and the Township Planning Board. He was present at the Board of Education meeting three of the six years that he served as member. Riverside and Johnson Park Schools were constructed during his presidency.

In a statement released this week, Borough Republicans said that they are seeking of service that we can be of service to Princeton, district and decision to many of the most important problems which face the Borough of Princeton. We are utilizing our varied experiences and abilities to help the Borough as the unique place it has always been, without losing sight of the necessity for progress in our modern world."

PERSONAL TAX TO END
In Princeton Borough, Borough Council voted at its meeting last night to abolish the household tax and personal tax for the tax year 1962 and thereafter. The action, taken after an hour-long public hearing, was approved by Councilman Dan D. Coyle and Joseph R. Wood, Jr., Alfred E. Sor森森, with Councilman William H. Walker, opposed.读

new collection regulations to be required by the state in the future. Edward Warren, Borough tax assessor, produced similar figures at the Council meeting. He said the town could cost from $17,000 to $20,000 to collect the tax which currently yields a little over $7,000.

Elimination of the household personal property tax will mean the loss of Borough funds raised from this source, and the difference will have to be made up by increasing the tax rate on real estate, Assessor Warren estimated that the increase would total 30 points.

However, he presented figures showing that the tax rate to be paid by homeowners would be slightly less than at present. Instead, the change in tax base will mean an increase in the amount of taxes paid by business and industry.

Examples: Given, Assessor Warren gave two examples to prove his point. The first was a prime home with assessed value of $3,800 for land, $13,300 for building, and $1,220 for personal property, for a total assessment of $18,370. At the present tax rate of 30 points, the tax on this would be $1,132. Eliminating the personal property, the total assessment would be $17,200. At a rate of 43, or 30 points higher, the tax on this would be $1,083.

At the other end of the scale he cited a home with land assessed at $700, building at $2,400, and personal property at $2,300, for a total assessment of $5,400. At the present tax rate of 30, the tax on this would be $1,613. The tax on this would be $3,400. Eliminating the personal property, the total assessment would be $3,100. At the rate of 43, or 30 points higher, the tax on this would be $1,383.

Commercial properties, which will continue to pay on their property as well as on real estate, will paid a larger total amount with the 30 point rise in the tax rate, Assessor Warren explained. At this point Major Male volunteers gathered information on the largest telephone company in Princeton. Bell Telephone Company, with an assessment of around $350,000 including all equipment.

Friedman, speaking on the ordinance, Councilman Walker explained that he was opposed to abolishing the personal property tax because its elimination means that people who rent their homes will not pay any taxes directly to the Borough. "It seems to me that we are denying the opportunity to some voters paying their share of the cost of government, and that is what their share is," he said.

Zoning Matter Tabled. The question of whether or not to allow a zoning variance permit for a single-family dwelling at 280 Nassau Street to be converted into three apartments was tabled by Councilman Austin after a lengthy and heated discussion. The variance had been approved by the Zoning Board of Adjustment and referred to Council for approval.

Opposition to the conversion was spearheaded by Donald R. Bryant Jr., attorney, on behalf of residents in the vicinity. Mr. Bryant presented letters opposing the action signed by about 40 residents. Nassau Lane, Princeton Avenue, Linden Lane, Evelyn Palace and Queenston Place. Among residents present at the meeting was Robert G. Donald, 7 Princeton Avenue, who said living in the area were against the conversion because they felt it would establish a precedent.

In other action, Borough Council:

- (1) Heard a suggestion from Councilman Austin that a committee be established in time to consider the possibility of consolidation of the Borough and Township.
- (2) Set April 17 to 21 as Clean Up Week.
- (3) Approved the appointment of Lieutenant Russell Shango as Inspector of Taxis and the promotion of Officer C. D. Harris to the rank of patrolman.

(4) Made plans to attend a demonstration of new radar equipment next Wednesday, March 22, at 1 p.m. in Borough Hall. Police Chief Raymond Mondino said the demonstration of Borough radar equipment is 10 years old and should be replaced.

(5) Received an invitation to attend the Spring meeting of the New Jersey Chapter of the American Public Works Association, to be held June 16 in Princeton. Borough Engineer Arthur T. Brokaw is director president.

When the talk got around to where we get our impressions from the Internet, it seemed to tell a story in a few words. We promised to look up a few of them. One that we heard often was "iron in the fire." That one came from the blacksmith and started in the dark ages. It is true that iron has a high melting point, but it does not cause nothing quite convey the idea that you cannot prop up a ton of iron well as visualizing a blacksmith with so many iron in the fire that some of them melt before he can attend to them.

Another that we heard comes from a current times, and in just four words tell of the damage a fire can do. "A fire is swinging in such anger that the head 'flies off' the body." Only the body of expression tell us that that human nature is pretty much the same today as it was thousands of years ago. The same expression still mean the same thing today.

A motto that will always save you time and money is "Deal only with specialists who have integrity and by the way that they value their integrity over a fast dollar." May we serve you soon?

ROUND UP

This issue marks the 15th anniversary of TOWN TOPICS, the first publication in Princeton, 1846. A small town then was equivalent to a little over two pages of this week's 40-page issue, appropriately, Vol. 16, No. 1 carries record-breaking totals of classified advertising.

Sleepy Princetonians who wondered if they heard thunder shortly after 5 a.m. this morning, actually did hear there. It was done in the minds of a Ewing Township family, whose TV set was smashed and living room damaged when a lightning bolt struck the roof-top antenna. Winter is hanging on, as a reading of 24 last Friday and 20 on Saturday indicates, but the calendar, at least, will turn to spring Monday afternoon at 3:32.

The Borough has set the period from April 17-22 as its Annual Cleaning Week. American Legion, planning a paper drive at the same time...fire and police officials in both Princeton and Ewing are still generally irritated with motorists chasing fire engines that they warn summonses will be issued offended who hinder fire-fighting efforts in any way.

Older tunnels have been closed to traffic for a week while a deep tunnel is laid across it to conduct heat and power lines to the University's Engineering Quadrangle. To prevent needless turnarounds, Charlton and William are also closed to through traffic during the workdays in the spring. Work will continue on Washington Road temporarily, since the tunnel will eventually extend all the way from the University power house down to the Engineering Quadrangle.

Engineering Quadrangle, Borough Engineer Arthur Brokaw plans "a major conference" on the temporary closing of Washington Road.

Assembliesman Edward J. Sweeney of Princeton is one of three Mercer County Democrats sponsoring a bill to increase the corporate tax in New Jersey (from 1 1/4 to 3 1/2 percent of net profits) as a major step toward balancing the state budget. They estimate that the new measure will bring in more revenues from such a measure and favor it in place of Gov. Meyner's proposed two percent tax on utility bills and 20-28 percent tax increase in motor vehicle fees.

Tuesday's inch-plus of rain could have been the ten-inch snowfall that Princeton had on March 8, brought in other recent years save for an exception: a 10-degree rise in temperature since mid-morning.

MARTIANS ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY? It was on Hallowe'en, 1938, that Orson Welles' little green men from Mars descended on the good folk of Grover Mill, and the people who live in the area have been understandably sensitive about Martians and little green men ever since that celebrated radio invasion. The legend is that floating over the water at a Grover Mill pond, is a domestic product, not a Martian, or even an Irish export. It is known to the leprechauns at Forrestal Refining Center, in Green Brook, New Jersey, where it is also referred to as an "air-eating device," a title which makes it sound considerably more sinister than this benign Irish tam o' shanter would seem to be. The occupant of the GEM, hovering tranquilly over his pond, is not identified. Martian? King of the Leprechauns? (Howard Schrader Photo.)

FOUR INJURED

In Freak Accident, Four persons were injured, one severely, when they were thrust through the glass doors of the Acme Market Friday by a car that had gone out of control. The shopping center accident occurred at 5:30 p.m.

At Township Police reconstruct the accident, Mrs. Sandra Sasseman, 18, of Nassau Street, pulled up to the parcels pick-up exit of the supermarket so that the parcel boy could load her groceries into the back of the car. She leaned across the back of the front seat to unlock the right rear door. As the parcel boy, James Sasseman, 18, of Plainsboro, began to load the car, the vehicle jumped forward, leaped the curb and crashed into the curb, but was not injured, doors, knocking down several women who were coming out of the store.

Mrs. Lisa Holt, 40, Blawenburg, was taken to Princeton Hospital with injuries which doctors suspected might include a fractured pelvis. X-rays showed only back injuries and no broken bones.

Miss Edna Miller, 64, Allentown, Pa., suffered severe jaccarditis when she broke into the doors. She was taken to the hospital and released on Saturday. Young Sasseman sustained an injured right knee and a bruised chin. He was treated and released.

The other injured person was Mrs. Marjorie Janoski, 38, Blawenburg, who was bruised when her child, Michael, 11, Joyce, 8 and Barbara, 5, were taken to Princeton Hospital, but also were released. Mrs. Helen C. Sawyer, 45, Trenton, was also at the scene of the accident, but was not injured. Mrs. Holt had enrolled in Princeton Hospital's School of Practical Nursing a few days before the accident. The nurse of the school, Mrs. Louise MacAlinden, was in the Acme parking lot when the accident occurred, and she left her car and ran to the scene to be of assistance. She was a student whom she found injured.

CHAPIN — TO EXPAND

Second Anniversary Project. The Chapin School has announced that it will celebrate its 30th anniversary with a $60,000 construction program which will involve a thorough renovation of existing buildings and the addition of a new wing at the intersection of Mercer and Province Line Roads and the construction of a new wing with two additional classrooms, kitchen, cafeteria, gymnasium and auditorium.

The project was announced Monday by Dr. Peter Putnam, president of the board, at the annual meeting of the school.

It is scheduled for fall completion.

A plot development plan of the long-range building program of the school as developed by the firm of Charles K. Agle, was shown at the meeting. William Thompson of the architectural firm of Dr. G. C. Thompson and Associates, presented military plans for the proposed new wing, stressing that flexibility, economy, the multiple use of space and the harmonious relationship of old and new buildings will be emphasized.

Dr. Putnam was re-elected to the presidency of the board. Dr. Richard L. Barach was elected vice-president; Miss Hyacinth Battle, secretary, and Lawrence Benson, treasurer.

WORKSHOPS PLANNED

By Community Services. Three workshops will be held Monday at YMCA under the sponsorship of the Council of Community Services. They will be held for six months in February. The workshops will begin with lunch at 12:30 p.m. and will adjourn at 2 p.m. Reservations to be made by noon this Friday may be obtained by calling YMCA 4882.

The workshops, all concerned with Princeton problems, will appraise health education, the health needs of existing migrant workers. Mrs. Richard L. Barach will serve as chairman of a health committee which will discuss ways in which Princeton's health problems can be solved.

Mrs. Arthur M. Sherwood will lead a workshop devoted to a discussion of nutrition, child development and adult education. Mrs. Murray Lampert will guide a workshop whose major purpose is to make an index of community certain drainage and paving available for migrant families.

Workshops are open to all members of the Council of Community Services and interested guests.

ROAD PLAN APPROVED

By Township Planners. The Township Planning Board accepted on Monday night the revised route of the road committee, thereby making the report and its accompanying map a part of the Township Master Plan. The map will not be officially adopted until it has been adopted by the Township Committee ordinance. This will probably not be until 1962, according to Township Administrator Joseph Nini.

The report, presented by Hans K. Sander, chairman of the road committee, will be published with its map about April 1. Major changes are the results of a long series of Saturday morning conferences with Township residents whose properties are affected by the proposed new road system.

The Planning Board also approved, subject to the posting of a bond and a dedication, the route of the Atlantic Refining Company to build a gas station at the junction of State Road and Cherry Valley Road on property belonging to John Morris, State Road.

The new road consists of an eight and one-half foot strip on Cherry Valley which the Township will use to widen the highway. The other half of Cherry Valley is in Montgomery Township, and Planning Board officials indicated that Montgomery will eventually widen its half, too.

The bond will be posted for Company will present its final performance of "Twelfth Night," and this Sunday at Club will be heard in concert by the Wellesley College Choir.

the Juilliard Quartet will appear in one of the university concerts. Series II presents the following day, Tuesday, March 21, there will be two offerings in the theatre. In the afternoon, the Children's Theatre will present

let" will be presented next formance of the work will be night at 8:30 p.m., played again at 8:30 p.m. Saturday

BIRTHDAYS COINCIDE
For Hamlet and Easter.
Richard Easton, who will play the title role in "Hamlet" for six performances next week, will celebrate his 28th birthday on March 20. This is the same date of the opening school matinees.
According to the grave-digger's scene, Hamlet was 28 years old at the time of his death.

Playing Hamlet on his birthday is nothing new to Mr. Easton who marked his 19th and 20th birthdays while taking that role in Montreal. Hailed as "Canada's finest Hamlet," he has appeared in all three Stratford Shakespeare festivals.

The Association of Producing Artists will use the First Quarto's grave-digger's scene for its "Hamlet" next week. Most productions use the Second Quarto as the source for that Evening performances of "Hamlet" will be held at 8:30 on Thursday, Friday and Saturday (March 23, 24 and 25). A few seats remain for the sober matinees at 2:30 on Saturday, March 25.

MRS. KEENE ELECTED
Mrs. Byron Keene, known professionally as Frances Keene, has been elected president of the Princeton Community Players.

Other officers are Betty Yates, past president; vice president; Fred Sheldon, second vice president; John Drury, treasurer, and Corinne Steinline, secretary.

WHAT'S MY NAME? That grumpy dwarf, Rumpelstiltskin, who prefers anonymity to publicity, will appear on the McCarter stage this Saturday, March 24, in a production of "The Younger Generation" by the McCarter-theatre-goers, all of whom will be "in" on the secret of his name while the miller's daughter tries desperately to guess it.

The Community Players are currently joining with the McCarter Company and the Princeton University Triangle Club to produce "Guys and Dolls" for the April production of the musical "Guys and Dolls."

PLAYDAYS SET
By Theatre Intime. A show combining two one-act plays with musical, theatrical techniques and interpretations will be presented next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 22, 23 and 24, by Theatre Intime. The show will be staged at 8:30 p.m. at the McCarter Theatre on the University Campus.

The two plays to be presented are Tennessee Williams' "Twenty-Seven Wagons Full of Cotton" and "Purifications." Comedic scenes will be given by the director, John Miller, and Bill Harman. A representative of the Association of Producing Artists, which is currently

THIS MUST BE THE PLACE: John Mills and Dorothy McGuire live with their family in their new home in Walt Disney's "Swiss Family Robinson" now showing at the Playhouse. The technicolor, freely-adapted version of Johann Wyss' story will run through Tuesday.

the Bronx Zoo, from the various animals living there.

Shipwrecked, without food, without hope, the intrepid little family manage to build a split-level treehouse and also manufacture grenades to defend themselves against the pirates. Ex-Monkeeteer Kevin Connor is pretty mischievous as the younger son, "Swiss Family Robinson" is as corny as "Three Worlds of Gulliver" and will probably make twice as much money, in color and Panavision.

Cimarron (March 22-29), the second series of Monday re-runs, we are treated at the Playhouse with a not-so-admirable series of re-makes, of which this is the latest example. It would seem that any picture filmed before the advent of wide-screen and color must therefore be considered a minor visual gem.

Edna Ferber's "Cimarron" was filmed in 1931 by RKO and starred Richard Dix and Irene Dunne. It is one of the greatest Westerns of all time. The 1961 version, starring Glenn Ford and Maria Schell, has more color, more sex, and spicier larger cast to fill the screen, a greater range of actors. The one spectacle scene, however, that of the landing of the Old Ironsides terribilis, is excitingly and lavishly staged.

Ford has a strange role as Yancey Cravat, the adventurer known as Cimarron, who becomes a man of wealth after his initial settling in Oklahoma, he leaves his family to find a better life. The action continues there, falling upon Miss Schell (one of Germany's top actresses making her third American appearance), as wife, a role she handles with aplomb. And CinemaScope, with Anne Baxter, Arthur O'Connell, and the Roger Wagner Chorus.

The Golden Fleeces (March 22-28) is another in the series of uniformly funny films. The plot is simple: Terry Thomas (as that first name, the name both of what is a species of British ambassador to a small colony in which the home government has suddenly taken renewed interest) finds that mineral deposits have been discovered within its borders. Sellers is the suave, corrupt prime minister of the colonial government. There are plots and counterplots, and before it ends the little country has become a major battleground in the cold war.

Although the story-line may not always hang together, some of the political satire, particularly a bit United Nations speeches, are amusing enough to keep the picture moving. These kinds of things are the meat of "The Mouse That Roared," and they're funny here.

Rebel Without a Cause (March 20), James Dean made only three pictures before his death, and this was the only one in which he had the sole lead role.

His is a superb portrayal of a confused, misunderstood teenager led to his becoming almost an idol for the younger generation. While this picture exaggerated the state of America, it is worth seeing because of Dean's performance. The movie also introduced the audiences to Natalie Wood and Sal Mineo, a good actor before he grew up. In color and CinemaScope, Recommended.

The League of Gentlemen (March 21-25) is another of the subtle, comedy thrillers that have so much success. It is a black comedy of actors and Nigel Patrick, this picture is like Alec Guinness' "Waltzes With a White Tie and a Pink Shirt."

Hawkins is an ex-legendary Colonel in the Army who presents his forcible retirement. To even the score with his country, he conducts a study of the Old West, building and electrical installations, and sets up a massive bank robbery plan on a scale approximating a full-scale military operation.

Woolrich's "Golden Fleece" (March 21-25) Hawkins organizes his League of Gentlemen from old M.C. Nichols, and proceeds with the fantastically intricate and complex scheme, "Operation Golden Fleece." Director Carl Denham directs the picture with a nice balance between action and suspense. Recommended.

New Shades at Shop. A little hand-made lampshade, perched on a pewter lamp to enhance the lamp, has attracted so much attention at The Country Mouse that the shop now has the lampshades in stock, and a collection of match-mates for sale, all hand made by the Woodstock "Workshop" and all designed with the country idea.

These shades (hexagons, drums or small clip ons), are made of Schumacher fabrics which describe cigarstore Indians, clipper ships, old taverns and their signs, or botanical patterns. Other patterns are in the works, Country Mouse says.

Blank. The glass company has produced a small school of fish designed to hold even smaller fish. The one we saw is eight inch fish made of glass half an inch thick. He stands on his fins with his mouth wide open and his inside filled with a pint and a half of water.

Swimming around in his diseased tract is an implement guppy. The fish is so ugly that it is devastatingly attractive against the colored stones in the bottom of the glass fish.
$11.95. A bigger fish-bowl—quite literally—stands a couple of inches taller and holds a quart of water.

Blank also has a pair of splendid decanters made from the original Williamsburg models. They are fine glass with slight imperfections that make it look very 18th century.

One is a square-bottom captain's decanter, the other a tall apothecary jar with small holes at the top.

Royal blue, pale orchid,
green or white glass reflects the light of a wick hurried in the wax inside the luminary. The candle-glasses are pineapple shaped, for indoor or outdoor use.

Incidentally, those jewel-colored stones in the bottom of the Blenko fish are $1.50 a box.

For $14.95, you may buy a charming little steepie clock

only six inches high or,

for more, a 15-inch model. The paper.

Sing Along

At The Country Mouse, you may find an inch-thick volume called "Song Book for Swingin' Housewives," containing words and music of more than a hundred "ah mazing" songs.

You will find an astounding diversity which comprises "St. James Infirmary Blues," "The Twelve Days of Christmas," a splattering of Calypso, and "Who Tore the Ovals in Mrs.
Murphy's Chowder?"

We also found "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and
"Sometime I Feel Like a Motherless Child." Do not let this, however, that this value is for those after-nursery-school hours. Many of the songs are for children 2 to 80.

The book costs $1.25. When we say "music" by the way, we mean the melodic line.
If you want phonograph, you're on your own.

Little one is a 30-hour alarm clock with a rosewood frame and a walnut door. Delightful in a country kitchen.

From somewhere or other,
Country Mouse has acquired a collection of one-dollar pamphlets which reproduce various 19th century phenomena. Six children's books from the 1850's (six for $1) an old fashioned picture book, pages from an early American school book and pictures of mid-19th century toys are all represented.

And for a collector, large or small, Country Mouse has an old stereopticon like the ones that used to be on pre-TV television tables, lots of pictures of solemn Indian family groups. Niagara falls and like come with the viewer.

For 99 cents each, you may take your choice from a large collection of Belgian linen tea towels with fanciful designs that will wrap nicely around any saucer. There's a calico one on the orange ground (olive or wine), very herbs displayed again, pink roses of paperdoll children and something that looks like tea

Speaking of tea, Country Mouse suggests 35 cents samples of tea, either in little tin cans or individually wrapped in paper, to be purchased separately or arranged together six in a row, on a little wooden rack.

In honor of you-know-who,

the shop has a wedge of Irish cheese, a semi-soft cheddar

(wouldn't you know it),

a bit on the sharp side, for 89 cents.

SPRING IS A KNIT

For the Traveling Kind, Knitwear, as on the calendar
if not on the weather

outside, has sent to Mary Gill

an assemblage of knit dresses with a light hand for spring and summer travel

playas like the beach and deserts are a hot day.

Our favorite is a white nubby knit sheath with a bow on each shoulder and little sleeves, and a straight waist.

on the coast.

An all wool dress, knit in a way that combines subtle with bold, has a straight skirt, a short-sleeved, un-clewith banded collar and low pockets. We saw it in bright cherry red (powder blue) with a casual collar and sleeves that cover the elbow.

MUSIC TO BE FEATURED

Of Series II Concert. Mozart's "Quintet in G Minor, K. 516," considered one of his greatest and most revealing masterpieces, will be featured in the second part of Series II of the Princeton University Concerts, to be held at 8:30 p.m. in McCarter Theatre.

The concert will be given by the Juilliard String Quartet, composed of Robert Mann and Isidore Cohen, violinists; Raphael Hillyer, violist, and Claus Adam, cellist. Mr. Trampler came to this country from Germany in 1939 and had a successful career as a soloist, member of the Berlin Symphony, founder and president of the New Music Quartet, and a participant in the Aspen Festival and School of Music. He also conducted the Mozart quintet two quarters to be included in the program of Monday's concert. They are Beethoven's "Quartet in F major, Opus 83," which he wrote in 1816, and the "Archduke," his genius was at its height, and which he called "Quartet Serioso," and the "Fifth Quartet" by Bartók, written in 1934.

The Juilliard Quartet was founded in 1946 by William Schuman, president of the Juilliard School of Music, in order that the school might have a good quartet in residence. Since the group has toured extensively in Europe and the United States, including an invitation performance at the Bartók Festival in Budapest in 1956.

Tickets for this concert are on sale at the University Store and will be sold at the McCarter box office during the evening of the concert. A few single tickets are now available to undergraduates, graduate students, and students of the Princeton Club. DEAR TRAVELEX,

Our cruise to Nassau gave us plenty of time for a full day at Paradise Beach. Took a long walk and found lots of shells and pieces of Coral. The clear green water (70 degrees F) is really a beautiful site!

We bought straw hats and things at the Native Straw Market and found that putting all gifts and purchases in a large straw bag simplified Customs inspection.

The weather was perfect and the sailing so smooth that only once did we have enough seas to really know we were sailing the Mighty Atlantic Ocean.

Nothing to do but Eat, Sleep, Lie in the Sun... hard to get back to real life! As the Natives say—Thes' all MONI

MAILBOX

Objects to Chain Letters.

To the Editor of Town Topics: I am a member of the Princeton Lions Club and am busily engaged in sending out chain letters. These are of the usual type containing a prayer and a curse as well as the direction that the recipient is to forward them to identical ones. I have received two such letters in two days.

Will you do me a good favor to let your paper print a note to the public to the effect that using the mails for the distribution of chain letters is a Federal offense and is punishable as such.

Help Your Firemen

An appeal to all Princeton residents for cooperation with the Fire Department was issued recently by the Borough Council by Councilman Ellwood W. Godfrey. He asked that citizens help in two ways:

1) Don't call police or fire departments to report a fire until at least 15 minutes after the alarm has been sounded. Incoming calls have been so numerous they have prevented essential outgoing calls.

2) If you must follow fire trucks to the scene of a fire, be sure to leave your car parked well off to the rear so the entrance is kept clear. Other trucks may be on the way or trucks may have to leave in a hurry to answer another call.

Mrs. M.L. Schulte, 39 Herriet Drive, Princeton.

Mr. Rauch outlined a platform calling for removal of the Board of Health and Plan-

THE WAY TO A MAN'S HEART is through his stomach, so Mrs. Robert C. Decker (left) and Mrs. James Golden do not serve their husbands TV dinners and prepared foods.

Question of the Week

Question: Do you think Mrs. Richard Siegler, Princeton Avenue, Rocky Hill, housewife: I think cooking should be related to the needs of each particular family. In my case I might not compete with other families trying to cook elaborate dishes. For some families cooking, or cooking in a particular way, very carefully, another family might want to spend their energy in another way. Also the same family at different times might like to cook differently. Cooking should be as simple as possible—never competitive.

Mrs. John Ellsworth, Millstone Road, Princeton Junction, housewife: I think not. In fact, I've heard it said among our women's clubs that some women prefer prepared foods. But the old timers, I imagine, would rather have their wives stay at home and cook. It's one way they have of keeping their wives at home.

Mrs. William D. Boughton, 806 Princeton-Kingston Road, housewife: Your statement implies that it is wrong. Does it make food taste any better because it is more convenient in cooking it? Just give me more time to ruin it. I don't see anything wrong in using these foods any more than it is wrong to drive a car that is slow.

Mrs. George Field, 30 Linden Lane, housewife: Yes, I think so. I just came back from France and I saw how people there are preparing the main meal of the day over there. I feel now at home. I tell it was worthwhile and my husband did too. I was trying to teach him the French style of cooking. Of course 1 feel frozen foods are a great help but using them too much takes the imagination out of cooking. I have never used a TV dinner and I don't intend to.

Bernardus Buitenhuis, Solar Motel, U.S.1, housewife: I think a lot of the women do. We never eat them because we think they look something like a horsemeat meal.

Mrs. Robert C. Decker, 106 Moore Street, housewife: Speaking for myself, I've never had a TV dinner; I don't use these foods. But I do feel they are all right for a working person or for us in emergencies.

Mrs. James Golden, Laurel Avenue, Kingstown, cashier: I think the wives that stay home all day depend on these foods. They are very good. Most working women wouldn't serve their husbands TV dinners. When we go home we want something substantial and we want something to eat substantial food, too. You can't work on a TV dinner. There isn't anything to them.

Martin Drift, Skillman, farmer: That's right. My opinion is that women today have the best equipment, the best kitchen equipment, yet they are cooking less than ever before. They buy a lot of prepared stuff. Nobody buys food any more in large quantities for preserving or canning.

SWIMMERS EXCEL

In Intercollegiate Meet. The first performance ever credited to a Princeton swimming team in the Eastern Intercollegiates was staged Friday and Saturday before a home crowd of 1,000 at the Nassau Pool. The Tigers were victorious in four events: the 100 and 200-yard backstroke, the 100-yard breaststroke, and the 400-yard medley relay. In the showings was a tremendous credit to Coach Bob Cloworthy, whose guidance has slowly been taking shape. The individual performances of Tom Welch in the backstroke and sophomore Garry Green in the breaststroke marked the first time that the Tigers have ever had an individual crowned in one intercollegiate Championship meet.

Green began his two-day performance by losing an extremely close final in the 100-yard breaststroke to Peter Forgaszay, a Hungarian who now ends up at the University of North Carolina. Saturday, however, he twice set a new national collegiate record in the 100-yard event, being clocked in a great 1:02.09. He also won the 200-yard title in 2:01.61.

Welch showed clear-cut superiority over Yale's ace, Bob Boni, in the backstroke, defeating him four times in all during the course of the meet. He won the 100-yard event in 1:01.1 and the 200-yard title in 2:06.1.

The 400-yard medley relay, the most picturesque scenes on the entire program, was as exciting an occasion as Deller Pool has seen in many seasons. Welch and Green, joined by the butterfly artist Bill Hillard and fleestyer John Greist,

The Tigers had the two individual champions, open water swimmer and Hillard maintaining their lead.

Greist, clocked in a 50.3 anchor leg, fed to fight off the efforts of all-American Fredy from Harvard and Navy, young all-time record holder ahead of a second meet of a week.

Princeton's winning time was a meet record: 3:45.1. Cloworthy has announced that he will enter his champion quartet in the national intercollegiates in Seattle later this spring.

The individual performance of the three-day meet was credited to Yale's Bill Chase, who defended his title successfully in the 200, 400 and individual events, breaking the meet record on each occasion. In all, a total of 23 Dillon Pool and meet records were set.

RELAY TEAM WINS
In IC-A Track Meet. A Princeton relay, a victory in the indoor IC-A track meet at Madison Square Garden, was recorded Saturday by the mile relay team.

The championship was achieved on the wings of a tremendous 47.7 anchor leg by Captain Dick Edmunds, who had a 10.4-mile deficit but finished in front with two yards to spare. Running with him were Forrest Walpole, Walt Axoy and John Gardner; the time, a very good 3:20.

CAMPBELL IS SECOND
In Basketball Scoring. An 18.1 average over the course of the Ivy Basketball race carried Penn's Bill Campbell of Princeton in the individual scoring race. George Ramming, Dartmouth captain, with 288 points to Campbell's 233.

Karen Johnson, Princeton center, was fourth with 200 points, and second to Ramming in rebounds with 119.

The big Indians cleared the boards 107 times, thus becoming the only team to play in nine rebounding titles and returning to win both the scoring and rebounding titles.

Princeton's average of 7.6 per game placed the defensive statistics Penn led the circuit on defense, allowing 59 points on the average.

The Quakers completely dominated the Tigers in the final game of the regular season, 74-55. In the Palesias last Wednesday, Princeton's defensive lapses on Princeton's part were largely responsible for the one-sided outcome.

Penn took an early lead, and was never headed. It was 45-30

Tiger Sophomore Nanard. For the first time since Harry Rulon-Miller's first year on the varsity six seasons ago, a Princeton sophomore has won all-Ivy honors in basketball. Named as the top man on the all-League team was Johnny Cook of Kingston.

Brothers Are Captains

In addition to the five County Day School alumni listed last week as either 1961 or 1962 captains of their respective football teams, the brothers have served in that capacity during the past season.

Oliver Hamill is captain of St. Paul's School, Newburyport, P.I., while Bill Hamill led the Rectory School team of Pomfret, Conn. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hamill of Carter Road.

Jake Haeril was the other choice for a forward position, while Harvard's defensemen, Harry Howell and Bob Anderson, and Princeton's Mike Sullivan filled the remaining positions. No Princetonian placed on the second team, which was also dominated by the championship Harvard sextet.

SULLIVAN NAMED

Hockey Captain for '61-'62. The first sophomore to be elected hockey captain in 25 years was chosen last weekend in a vote of the skaters in 1961-'62. He is Austin P. Sullivan, a Princeton resident who is an alumnus of Country Day and a member of the Class of 1964.

Sullivan played in the second team all the past season, ending academic ineligibility after the exams in January. He earned a starting berth as defenseman immediately, saw constant action and was a consistent punch with 10 points in the eight games in which he played. His mother is Mrs. Edgar M. Gemmill of Providence Line Road.

The Blackwell Trophy, highest honor awarded to a Princeton hockey player, went to senior Perry Hall. The first line center was selected for contributing most in "play, sportsmanship and influence."

SHIRT IN SCENE

For Tiger Nine. When the Princeton University baseball team opens a 25-game schedule on the afternoon of May 3, March 31 will play on the new diamond east of Palmer Stadium. As yet unnamed, the area replaces University Field, which completed more than six years ago. This summer it gave way to the New Engineering Quadrangle.

The University of Massachusetts will provide the opposition in the Tigers' first game on the new site. The team usually has been in use for a year, since the freshman played on it last spring after Brokaw Field gave way to the new tennis courts.

Seventeen home games, an unusually large number, are on the 1961 schedule for Coach Eddie Donovan's team. Five games will be played against Eastern Intercollegiate League opponents, with Brown and Harvard due here on April 14 and 15 to give Princeton its first shot at the 1961 title. Bob Myers, a steel-milled baseball man who can field and hit equally well, is the 1961 captain. The Tigers will be to better last year's 13-11 mark and 4-5 standing in the league.

The 1961 schedule: March 31, Massachusetts, April 1, Maine; 5, Seton Hall; 7, Rutgers at New Brunswick; 8, Amherst; 12, Villanova; 14, Brown; 16, Harvard; 18, Fordham; 20, C.C.N.Y.; 22, Cornell at Ithaca; 26, Columbia; 29, Dartmouth at Hanover; May 4, N.Y.U.; 6, Army; 11, Manhattan; 12, Yale; 14, New Haven; 16, Navy at Annapolis; 18, Rutgers; 20, Pennsylvania; May 27, Colgate; June 3, Yale at New Haven; 6, Lafayette; 7, Rider; 10, Yale.

LACROSSE Clinic. Members of Princeton's nationally ranked men's lacrosse team and Coach Ferris Thomsen will conduct a lacrosse clinic for boys 8 through 15 on Saturday, March 23, on Fox Field. The program will begin at noon with a lacrosse movie to be shown at 111 McCormick Hall.

Purpose of the clinic is to acquaint youngsters with the sport. Demonstrations will be given concerning various techniques and rules. Interested fathers have also been invited.

Varsity players participating include several who are also well known in other sports. They are Tommy Campbell, hockey defenseman; Perry Hall, baseball; Dick McGinn, football; Mike Burton, basketball; and Hugh Scott, hockey and football.

Following the clinic, Princeton will open its 1961 season against the Philadelphia Lacrosse Club at 2 p.m. Both the game and clinic will be open to interested persons without charge.

HUNT DROPS FINALE

To Pennington School, The champion of the Penn-Jersey League, Pennington, gained its 10th victory last week by defeating the host school the third time this season, 45-31. The Bed and Black ended with a 6-4 league record.

The outcome of the game was in doubt until the final minute when visiting Red Raiders outscored the losers, 12-3. Jay Maynell led Hunt's shooters with nine points followed by Gary Grover with seven.

BUSINESS In Princeton

SHELTON MOVES

Agency in New Building. The Shelton Motor Company, Plymouth-Valiant dealer for the Princeton area, has moved to new quarters, 809 State Road. The new building, which totaling has 5500 square feet of sales, service and office space, approximately 3200 feet more than the previous building at 300 Witherspoon Street.

The new structure stands on a plot of land with 300 feet of frontage and 200 feet of depth. The building, designed by Anthony Nini, owner of Nini's, was built by Joseph Passavant Brothers of Lawrenceville.

The Shelton Motor Company, founded by Frank Shelton, had been in business for 4 years at the Witherspoon Street location. Mr. Nini purchased the agency from Mr. Shelton in 1958. At his new building, he will offer, in addition to sales, complete service facilities. These will be available under Harnacec "Woody" Stomaker, a service manager for the past two years.

TO MAKE CARTONS HERE

In New Plant. One of the newest business enterprises in the Princeton area is the Princeton Carton Corporation, which will build a new plant this spring on Route One opposite the State Police Barracks. The opening is scheduled for early May.

The corporation specializes in large quantity runs of folded cartons, and will employ approximately 100 men in the plant. Princeton Carton will have a research and development division, and has incorporated into its building plans the specifications for enlarging the plant within a short time.

Princeton Carton was organized this year by Joseph M. DiPietro, of Pittsford, N.Y., formerly executive vice-president and general manager of the Swartz Folding Box Company. He chose Princeton as the location because the area is half way between two refineries of National Sugar Refining Company, Princeton Carton's largest industrial customer.

Sale of the Route One property was handled through Wilm Schaefer, of Hilton Realty, Princeton.

LICOR APPEAL DENIED

Court Denies License. The Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission last week dismissed the appeal of Renwick's against Borough Council and Kenneth Renwick, owner, and as a result, King's Court will keep the liquor license granted to it last spring by Council.

In its appeal, Renwick's charged that Borough Council

BREAK GROUND FOR NEW PLANT: The Princeton Carton Corporation will build a new automated plant on Route One near Ridge Road in South Brunswick Township and Mrs. Joseph M. DiPietro, wife of the president of the firm, turns the first shovelful of earth for the new buildings. Plant and offices will be red brick Colonial. Left to right: Robert Madl, architect; Mrs. DiPietro; John C. Ladd, engineer; Joseph DiPietro, president; Edgar Rank, completed the sale; Edgar Rank, assessor for South Brunswick; Nicholas Maul, chairman of South Brunswick's industrial commission; Abraham Dobin, mayor of the Township and James Fucetola, builder. (Fred Porter Photo.)

had failed to establish objective criteria for passing on liquor applications for which no available license had been invited additional applications before passing on the Renwick's application, which was filed before. Consider the fact that it had been in Princeton longer than King's Court, and claimed that it had better accommodations and a manager with more professional qualifications than King's Court. The restaurant also charged that Renwick's had held hearings in secret.

William H. Davis, director of A.B.C.'s, said earlier after examining all the testimony, he had concluded that the procedure used in processing the various applications was "not beyond criticism" and that Renwick's had failed to establish that Council was arbitrary or prejudiced.

Mr. Davis also cited the A.B.C.'s long-established principle of granting a liquor license to the issuing authority, the question of granting a liquor license to a particular location.

OFFICERS ELECTED

At Edmund Cook and Co., William H. Karch, supervisor of management for Edmund Cook and Company was elected assistant secretary of the company at the annual meeting of the company held last night.

PHILLIPS APPOINTED

Opinion Research. Dr. William M. Phillips of Park Avenue, Pennington, has been promoted to the position of research director at Opinion Research Corporation. Associated with him in the firm, Mr. Phillips was previously the banking and accounting field.

Other recent promotions include that of Louis Zissman of Pennington to survey director and Frank O. Cris, of Firstview Avenue, Princeton, to assistant survey director.

Mr. Zissman, who has been with the firm since 1954, was formerly with American Research, Inc. and ORC since 1955, was previously on the staff of the American Institute of Public Opinion.

The Schwenk Memorial Award, presented to the player who has done the best for his school, was awarded to Jim Maynell, high-scoring forward of the Hun basketball team. The Sieff Award for proficiency in fencing was presented to Abbie Falanga and won the New Jersey interscholastic fencing championship on March 1 when he defeated the defending titlist, Curtis Cefalo, of Newark Academy.

Wrestling standout Paul Savidge who won the state inter-scholastic heavyweight title for the second straight year, was the state award for his feat. Paul and his brother, Peter Savidge, were named co-captains elect of the 1961 Hun wrestling team. Other co-captains include Guy Oliver and Jim Byers, basketball; Mike Kling, fencing; and Doug Kirk and John Pitney, swimming.

TIGERS TRUMPHANT

For First NCAA Victory. Despite the early loss of its captain and standout rebound artist, Don Swan, Princeton's basketball team easily defeated Georgetown, 67-56, in NCAA competition Tuesday night at Madison Square Garden.

The 84-67 triumph was the first credited to an Orange and Black squad in the 1961 season, and the first for an away team in NCAA action since Dartmouth turned the trick 19 years ago. As a result, Acting Coach Jake McCannless will have his team in the N.C. for Friday's second-round contest against St. Joseph's of Philadelphia.

Princeton dominated action from the beginning on Tuesday, jumping away to a 3-0 lead, trailing briefly at 4-3 and again later moving out for good. At the end of the first half the Tigers had a 28-20 lead and they left the floor at half-time in front by 10 points. They led by upwards of ten during most of the second period.

Sharpshooter Pete Campbell, an all-ivy choice for the second year in a row, had his best game of the year, hitting for an invaluable 25 points. Al Kaemmerlen, all ivy with Campbell, was credited with 16, as was sophomore Art Hyland.

Hyland's gun-shoe defense dogging of George Washington's Jon Feldman was a major factor in the one-sided triumph. Feldman scored 45 in the game that rocked the southerners into NCAA play, but Hyland pared him all the way down to 11.

Accompanied with the loss of Don Swan in the third minute of the game, McCannless ran his bench to perfection. Andy Higgins and then Mike Burton performed well in the emergency, while Tom Adams did a standout job in spelling Al Kaemmerlen.

Swan was knocked to the floor in the first half, suffered a severely cut forehead and a mild concussion. He will be out of action at Charlotte, with his return to Princeton being subject to be missed by the team in their bid for an upset over St. Joseph. Unless Princeton wins Friday, it will be the turn of the Wake Forest-St. Bonaventure game on Saturday.

Report from THE MAYOR

Understanding. Less than one year has passed since the Mayor appointed the chairman for Princeton observance of United Nations Day activities. Mr. Calvert Calmont headed the outstanding efforts which last October saw every community group involved in special events.

The theme of last fall's effort was "This is a Beginning." Now, under Chairman Steve Vuglen, the local committee has scored another impressive gain in citizen understanding of our world. Last Saturday, an overflow crowd of more than 400 persons at Woodrow Wilson Hall tried to get within "earshot" of Yunosov Ambassador, Mark Novak.

Mr. Ambassador spoke very candidly, his description of his country's unusual posture in the current struggle between East and West. He fielded dozens of tough questions from an audience intent on finding out the policies and views of a nation which has carved out a very unique foreign policy in today's troubled world.

Princeton Mayor Charles Bridgeman, newly-designated Ambassador to Yugoslavia, was present at the meeting, as were the wives of the two ambassadors.

More To Come. Proof that all this, too, is "just a beginning" can be found in the fact that the local UN committee is already planning its next venture to be held in Princeton, its growing role in international understanding. The hospital committee has made several trips to the UN in New York as part of their arrangements to promote family visits here.

Former UN Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, writing in a national magazine, described the bitterness of some foreign delegates after three years of

HARRY H. HALL JR.

"Holy Saturday?" In the often cold City of New York, The University of Princeton hospital can help to answer this need. This community has a unique opportunity to serve and to demonstrate our way of life in a relaxed, natural atmosphere. —

Drop-Outs. Nationally, we must be concerned about the number of American youth who drop out of school before they earn a high school diploma. Here in Princeton, special attention is being given to this and to other aspects of the youth employment picture.

The Mayor begins this week a speaking tour of the local service clubs in behalf of the proposed youth employment service. The Council of Community Service Clubs is interested in this project; teenagers have been expressing great interest in it; and prospective employers have made inquiries about it.

Friday Open House. The regular weekly "Tell it to the Mayor" sessions will be held on Friday, March 17, and Friday, March 24, from 7 to 10 p.m. at Borough Hall. No appointment necessary. Refreshments will be served.

Last week's visitors included one resident who offered to do some experimenting in the hope of finding solutions to one of this winter's primary headaches—slippery sidewalks caused by the severe weather. Modern chemistry may hold an answer to a perennial municipal headache.
